

People and interaction

Asset based

Understands and interprets the design of change and the role of people, technology, processes, and tools.

Organisations are not mechanisms, people in them flourish or fade under certain conditions.

Deficit based

Change is linear, controlled, and controllable. The organisation lacks the required human and technical skills.

Process and tools

are valued more than individuals and interactions in practice.